Item 2: Election of two people to sign the minutes together with the chair of the meeting

Svein Frydenlund and Mette Solbergseter were elected to sign the minutes together with the meeting chair:

Item 3: Approval of the notice convening the meeting and the agenda

The meeting notice, agenda and case documents were sent out by email on 29 February 2024, and the case documents were also made available on the Bank's website.

No objections to the meeting notice and agenda were received.

The meeting notice and agenda were then unanimously adopted.

Item 4: Determination of the external auditor's compensation for 2023

The case documentation was the Board of Directors' presentation of the case dated 29 February 2024. After a review by the CEO, the following was passed unanimously:

DECISION:

The Supervisory Board set the auditor's fee for Deloitte AS at NOK 1,755,875 for auditing SpareBank 1 Østlandet for the 2023 financial year. VAT is included.

Item 5: Approval of the annual financial statements for 2023

The case document was the Board of Directors' presentation of the matter on 29 February 2024. The CEO outlined the matter. The following was subsequently passed unanimously:

DECISION:

The Supervisory Board approved the final annual financial statements and the Board of Directors' annual report for 2023.

The Supervisory Board adopted the following allocation of the profit for 2023:

- Allocation of a cash dividend of NOK 7.80 per equity capital certificate, totalling NOK 903 million. This provides for a distribution to equity capital certificate holders of 60% of the consolidated profit (majority' share) per equity certificate according to the ownership fraction in line with the Bank's dividend policy.

- A customer dividend of NOK 381 million is proposed. Customer dividends not claimed by 31 December 2024 will be transferred to SpareBank 1 Østlandet's Sustainability Fund.
- The dividend equalisation fund and primary capital will thus be allocated NOK 864 million and NOK 370 million, respectively.
- A provision is made for donations for 2024 of NOK 6 million.

Item 6: Authorisation to raise subordinated capital and senior non-preferred debt, in addition to authorisation to redeem outstanding subordinated capital and senior non-preferred debt

The case documentation was the Board of Directors' presentation of the case dated 29 February 2024. The CFO outlined the case. The following decision was subsequently passed unanimously:

DECISION:

Pursuant to section 11-2 of the Financial Institutions Act, which states that "Any resolution or authorisation to raise additional Tier 1 capital or Tier 2 capital shall be adopted by the general meeting by the same majority as that required to amend the articles of association", as well as the Financial Supervisory Authority of Norway's interpretation of the same paragraph with regard to raising senior non-preferred debt, the Supervisory Board made the following decision:

The Board of Directors of SpareBank 1 Østlandet is authorised to issue subordinated capital. This can be done through raising loans in one or more of the following categories:

- a) Subordinated loan of up to NOK 2,000,000,000*
- b) Perpetual hybrid Tier 1 capital of up to NOK 2,000,000,000*

The Board of Directors of SpareBank 1 Østlandet is authorised to issue senior non-preferred debt that may be converted into new equity:

- c) Senior non-preferred debt may not exceed NOK 4,000,000,000.*

These loans, a), b) and c), may be raised in Norwegian kroner or foreign currency.

The Board of Directors is authorised to apply to the Financial Supervisory Authority of Norway to redeem, repay or buy back subordinated capital and senior non-preferred debt.

The authorisation is valid until 31 December 2025.

All previous board authorisations for the raising of hybrid Tier 1 capital, subordinate loans and other subordinated debts are hereby recalled.

Item 7: Authorisation for equity capital certificate buybacks

The case documentation was the Board of Directors' presentation of the case dated 8 February 2024. The CFO outlined the case. In section 5 of the decision, the year number was corrected from 2024, as it stood in the proposed resolution in the case documents sent out, to 2025. The following was subsequently passed unanimously:

DECISION:

The Supervisory Board adopted the following acquisition of its own equity capital certificates:

- 1) The Bank may acquire and/or pledge equity capital certificates with a total nominal value of up to NOK 289,574,473, the equivalent of 5% of the Bank's statutory equity share capital, over the course of one or more occasions.
- 2) The sum to be paid for each equity capital certificate acquired shall be a minimum of NOK 1 and a maximum of NOK 250.
- 3) The Board of Directors is free to decide how the acquisition, pledging, or disposal of equity capital certificate takes place. This authorisation shall, among other things, be used for the savings scheme for the Bank's employees.
- 4) The authorisation can be used from the moment it is approved by the Financial Supervisory Authority of Norway and the Supervisory Board's decision is registered in the Register of Business Enterprises. The authorisation replaces the current authorisation from the moment the Supervisory Board's decision is registered in the Register of Business Enterprises.
- 5) This authorisation shall remain valid until 31 December 2025 in the event that it is used in connection with the savings scheme for the Bank's employees. For other purposes, this authorisation shall remain valid until the 2025 meeting of the Supervisory Board, although not after 30 June 2025.

Item 8: Advisory vote on the "Report on executive remuneration for 2023"

The case documentation was the Board of Directors' presentation of the case dated 29 February 2024. Appended to the case was the "Report on executive remuneration for 2023" and the "Executive remuneration policy" as approved by the Supervisory Board on 30 March 2023. The CEO outlined the matter. Thereafter, an advisory vote was held on the "Report on executive remuneration for 2023" and the following was passed unanimously.

DECISION:

The Supervisory Board held an advisory vote on the "Report on executive remuneration for 2023" and approved the report without further comment.

Item 9: Amendments to the “Executive remuneration policy”

The case documentation was the Board of Directors’ presentation of the case dated 29 February 2024. Attached to the case was the “Executive remuneration policy” with the proposed amendments marked. The Chair of the Board of Directors outlined the matter. The following was subsequently passed unanimously:

DECISION:

The Supervisory Board decided to approve the “Executive remuneration policy” as presented.

Item 10: Election of the Supervisory Board’s nomination committee
